Sensations: It was a long time that I was not so admired and thrilled in front of a wine. A real miracle of concentration in pulp and of absolute olfactory radiance. A nature that works without limits, but assisted by a man, by a technician who does not want to lose any atom of such immeasurable treasure of aroma. It is a fact that the flash of peach, apricot, asparagus, basil and filament of the grape pulp, that in this wine it gives in liquid phase as if it were pure essence, forever it will remain in the senses of those who taste it as a floral, chlorophyllic siren and ethereal essence of pure nature. The best Italian white wine of the year whose aromaticity is universal apex of unoxidised and exquisite purity of fruit. Chapeau.
